

Contents

Foreword On the Occasion of the First Issue of The Journal of International Textual Scholarship Kiyoko MYOJO	4
---	---

Articles

Special Issue Friedrich Hölderlin, the History of Scholarly Editing of His Works: Considering How to Edit a Translatable Text

Introduction Takashi YAHABA	6
-----------------------------------	---

The Historical-Critical Edition of Hölderlin out of the Limelight: Zinkernagel and His Edition Hideya HAYASHI	10
---	----

The Poem as a Growing Organism: Beißner and the Stuttgart Edition Koji OTA	30
--	----

Critical Analysis of the Frankfurt Historical-Critical Edition of Hölderlin's Complete Works: Unveiling Methodological Challenges and Historical Significance Toshiro EKI	52
---	----

Possibilities of Editing: The Case of Hölderlin's "Studienausgaben" by Schmidt, Knaupp and Reitani Takashi YAHABA	68
---	----

* * *

The Concept of the Historical-Critical Edition: Siegfried Scheibe's Editorial Theory Shunsuke MORIBAYASHI	82
---	----

The "Studienausgabe" in Bodo Plachta's Theory and Practice Yu TOMIZUKA	98
--	----

* * *

Translation

Timpanaro, Sebastiano: La genesi del metodo del Lachman (1) Hiroaki ITO	112
--	-----

* * *

Book Review

Fake Spectrum: Various Aspects of "Lies" in Literature edited by Noburu NOTOMI and Kiyoko MYOJO Yoshiki TAJIRI	150
---	-----